5. Support of the Maidu Bike Park Location/ Auburn Recreation District (ARD)

Kahl Muscott, District Administrator and Scott Holbrook, Board Member of Auburn Recreation District presented this item. Mr. Muscott spoke of the benefits of a bike park for families and the community. Mr. Holbrook said the facility is wonderful and the location is perfect. They spoke about the ad-hoc committee who has made this park possible with local fundraising and grant opportunities.

Council Member Hanley asked about pump track/ skill courses in the area and success in those areas with this type of track.

Council Member Holmes asked about the appropriateness of the Auburn Endurance Capital Committee sending a letter of support without City Council approval first. He also spoke of an article in the Placer Sentinel regarding a park event.

Council Member Nesbitt asked about the anticipated draw area.

Interim City Manager Rich Ramirez clarified that the Endurance Capital Committee letter was included by ARD.

Scott Holbrook spoke about the letters of support being received regarding the bike park.

Council Member Kirby asked about the possibility of weekend events at the park.

Council Member Hanley asked more details about the location and possible fire hazards.

Mayor Powers asked about continued funding for the park.

Diana Boyer, resident of Auburn, Auburn Bike Park Committee, spoke about the work done by the committee on this project. She spoke in general support of this type of facility in the area.

Paula Johnstone, resident of Auburn, asked about the impact/ safety of riders and hikers on the Western States Trail.

Council Member Hanley congratulated the bicycle community, ARD and BOR for creating "good clean fun" for the kids in our area.

Council Member Holmes spoke about the Amgen tour coming through Auburn again this year.

Council Member Kirby talked about the upcoming bicycle criterium. He spoke about the positive impact of this type of facility on the community.

Council Member Nesbitt said this type of facility creates another reason to come to Auburn.

6. Review of Draft Brochure and Input from Community regarding City Manager Recruitment

Interim City Manager Rich Ramirez presented this item.

No public comment.

Council Member Nesbitt said it was very important to engage the public in this process. He said he is disappointed there are not more people here to speak on this item.

Council Member Kirby said while he is also disappointed there is no public comment, but there was already a large number of community members involved in the process so far.

Council Member Hanley asked for "Historic Gold Rush Town" to be included in title on the front page of the brochure.

Council Member Holmes said he agrees with adding the Historic Gold Rush Town title. He said this brochure provides a comprehensive look at the type of person needed to lead the city.

Mayor Powers talked about the great communication by the recruiting firm with the Council and community.

By MOTION, adopt the screening profile modifying the front page to read "Historic Gold Rush Town and Endurance Capital of the World" and authorize its use in the screening of applicants for the position of Auburn City Manager.

8. Participation Agreements for Regional Sewer Project

City Attorney Michael Colantuono presented this item. He reviewed the history on this item and explained the agreements that still need to be completed for this project. He reviewed Lincoln and County's responses to the proposed agreements. He said the action tonight is to send the City Attorney to the table to negotiate these deal points, not agreeing to the deal points.

Council Member Hanley had questions regarding: (1) capacity sell back rights, (2) maintenance charge blank, (3) transfer capacity/ environmental review of transfer, and (4) makeup water obligations.

Public Works Director Bernie provided an update on payments made per the funding agreement on this project.

Council Member Nesbitt said he is glad to see the agreements get “tightened down” on this project. He said he appreciates all the work by the City Attorney on this issue.

Council Member Kirby said he spoke with Supervisor Montgomery and Supervisor Duran and they are on board with Auburn’s needs and concerns.

Council Member Hanley said although he did not support the purchase of capacity in the common pipeline, he does believe in participation agreements that protect the rate-payers investment going forward.

Council Member Holmes also thanked the City Attorney on his work putting these agreements together.

By MOTION, direct the City Attorney to submit to the Lincoln City Attorney and Placer County Counsel participation agreements, setting forth the rights and responsibilities of the City of Auburn, the City of Lincoln, and Placer County with respect to Auburn’s participation in the regional sewer project and to initiate negotiations of final agreements for approval by both Cities and the County.
